

Sikhs Mox Lamonti Lodge #338

ORDER OF THE ARROW

MEMBERSHIP TRANSFER FORM

Welcome Fellow Arrowman!

Whether you have just moved to our area or joining us after a long break, we look forward to meeting you and getting to know you.

Sikhs Mox Lamonti Lodge #338 serves the Mount Baker Council serves youth and volunteer in the Snohomish, Skagit, Whatcom, island and San Juan counties. Our Lodge was created in 1996 by merging Kelcema and Quilshan Lodges. Our Council camp is Fire Mountain in Mount Vernon, WA.

Our year-round program includes a number of ordeals, fellowship, a leadership development conference, and an annual banquet to name a few events. We hope that you will take the opportunity to join us at any or all of these events.

In addition, we hold monthly Chapter meetings in your local area. These meetings are a great way to start getting involved with the Lodge. Please see the list below of communities (and school districts in the case of Salish Sea District) and their corresponding Chapters.

District	Chapter
Salish Sea – Everett, Edmonds, and Mukilteo	Lushootseed
Pilchuck – North and East Snohomish County, Camano Island, and Skykomish	Sikhs Klone-Chuck
North Cascades – Whatcom, Skagit, and San Juan Counties, and Whidbey Island	Tsele

To initiate your membership transfer, please complete the attached form and mail it or deliver it in person to the Mount Baker Council Office (instructions are on the form). Once we have transferred your membership, you will be added to our mailing list. The following online resources are also available to you.

We have a website and a Facebook group. Your Chapter may also have it's own Facebook group. We recommend you join both groups.
